LADOGA

CANNERS

There stands a school in this our state.
And a mighty school is she,
She trains a group of girls and boys
To a wise maturity.

And home they'll come for blessings new,
Home to their school so dear,
And some day in the far-off time
Again they'll gather here.

Here's to "Doc" whose slightest rule
We never broke or disobeyed,
Well, just a few, a time or two,
We bent or fractured, I'm afraid.
But even so, each heart's aglow
With proud affection, real and true,
We all acclaim your worth and fame,
And, "Doc" Neff, here's to you.

Class History

It was the second day of September, 1947,--a calm peaceful autumn day, radiant with the sunshine of hope, cheer and joyous promise that the good ship Ladoga High School stood at anchor at the wharf of a new school year. It was the same old ship that had carried many passengers to safe harbors in the Land of Great Wisdom; but this day was a gala day in its history, and many people gazed upon it in wonder as they watched the eight beautiful and charming young ladies and the fifteen bold and dashing young gentlemen as they so happily stepped aboard, for it was rumored that they were about to set sail over new and untried waters in a quest for the Fountain of Perfect Understanding.

As the ship stood at anchor on that eventful, morning of September, the passengers began to arrive; and as the ship's register was completed, the following had signed aboard: Danny Boone, Freddie Brennan, Helen Bullock, Monte Chadwick, Harold Cline, David French, Evangeline Light, Allen Long, Eddie Long, Mary Long, Robert Long, Jim Miller, Dale Newhouse, Perry Rodman, John Rogers, Carrie Lou Sears, Eddie Sears, Richard Stark, William Strickler, Joan Swinney, and Betty Zimmerman.

This was the first voyage that the Junior and Senior High were consolidated on the same ship. That meant we had to endure many hardships to maintain our standing on the voyage. We led the way for other Seventh Grade classes to be on the same ship as the Seniors.

We left the wharf to set sail on the voyage of Junior and Senior High School Life. During the next two years we sailed the Seventh and Eighth Seas, and moved forward into the immense four seas of Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior.

During the voyage there were naturally a few cases of seasickness, and various ones were tempted to throw up algebra, geometry, and other disagreeable dishes, and to toss some of their best belongings overboard in times of rough seas; but the Stewardess assured them calmly but firmly that they would only have to consume these indigestibles over and over until they were perfectly assimilated; and so they bravely managed to hold them down.

During the last two years we have endured many activities among which are the Junior play, Junior-Senior Reception, annual, and Senior play. We have also had many delightful experiences and many wonderful lessons. The Passenger List has changed at many points with the following now registered: Danny Boone, Louie Brown, Monte Chadwick, Harold Cline, Jim Cloncs, David French, Evangeline Light, Allen Long, Mary Long, Robert Long, Dale Newhouse, John Rogers, Richard Stark, William Strickler, and Joan Swinney. Now the few who still remain together land at Commencement Wharf. We must not divulge the secrets of our shipmates. We must not forget the loyalty due to our class colors of purple and white so valiantly flying at the masthead. The best and most vital history of one person or thing is never given to the world. So must it be with the Class of 1953.

Now we look at the larger and more majestic ocean ahead and feel that our experience has fitted us to withstand every storm, and weather any opposing force with no fear of disaster, saying with Byron:

"Roll on, thou deep and dark blue ocean, roll!
Ten thousand fleets sweep over thee in vain."

But not in vain, the class of 1953! We will go on writing new logs of greater adventure and yet more wonderful discovery; for while the voyage of Junior and Senior High School Life is at an end, the voyage of Real Life is just now and here at its Triumphant Commencement.

Prophecy

Allen Long, our boy of the farm
Is our idea of a "prince of charm"
Except for his farm life he would be fine
For when it comes to girls, they wait in line!

Dale Newhouse, as years go by,
As far as we can see
Will milk his cows and slop his pigs,
And happy he will be.

Richard Stark, so tall and lean,
So high in the clouds, he can hardly be seen
Someday when he owns a grocery store
He'll have to install a special door.

John Rogers, a Navy boy he will be,
He'll make all the French girls say "oui oui"
His sweet little Sue will sit at home
While the wide blue seas John will roam.

Bill Strickler, the fair-haired lad
Whom we all like a lot
After high school he will be
A reporter on the "Spot!"

Joan Swinney, a sweet little lass
Goes up to the office for a pass
Every morning at a quarter past eight
We hope, in college, she won't be late.

Evangeline Light, a secretary she will be
To some handsome man in a large company
In Indianapolis she will stay
Margie, her roommate, to share her pay.

Mary Long, our cheerleading gal
We all like her and call her "pal"
She may marry Wilbur and live in town,
Or she might find a farm boy and settle down.

Margie Kenworthy, so short and sweet
Will some day occupy an important seat
A secretary she will be, we hope,
With bosses' problems she will cope.

Bob Long, a drugstore he will own
He'll be a very hard worker,
He'll have lots of money to loan
And Maureen as his soda jerker.

Danny Boone, a romeo is he,
With his curly hair and eyes of brown,
A television star he may be
His show will be the "Girls of the Town."

Louie Brown in typing he doesn't excel
But about his future we can't tell
For all we know he may be
An important man in some company.

Monte Chadwick, we will say
Will surely make the grade
He likes to cross electric wires
He'll have a shocking trade!

The Cubs will look for David French,
They'll send a scout around.
When he flashes all those "greenbacks,"
How can David turn him down!

Harold Cline, a first-class millionaire,
Walking around with his head in the air,
Driving around in his big cadillac,
We hope he doesn't get a crink in his back!

Jim Cloncs, a farmer he will be,
He'll marry Joanne L.
They'll settle on a little farm,
And mutton they will sell.

Class Will

We, the senior class of Ladoga High School, county of Montgomery, and State of Indiana, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

First, I, Allen Long, will my wavy hair to Clarence Radcliff and David Swinney. Use it well boys.

Second, I, Bob Long, will my laugh to Joe Heeter. Joe you are now the biggest freak in school.

Third, I, Jim Cloncs, will my walk to Don Todd for a slight improvement. Practice it Don.

Fourth, I, Danny Boone, wish to donate my brains to Patty Long and Millie Cline, so they may please Mrs. Ainsworth with better work.

Fifth, I, Richard Stark, will my hot rod to Bob Pence to put a little life into the following school year.

Sixth, I, David French, will my running ability to Johnny Gott and Max Todd, make a good record boys.

Seventh, I, John Rogers, donate my good nature to Ralph Rogers and Ralph Jeffries to save them a few conference periods.

Eighth, I, Harold Cline, donate my home economics period to Keith Todd and Bill Kimmel to stop their mid morning hunger.

Ninth, I, Louie Brown, will my sleeping ability to Don Miller and Richard Dickerson so they will have something to do in the assembly.

Tenth, I, Dale Newhouse, will my strong fingers to Tom Long so he can get the milking done quicker.

Eleventh, I, Bill Strickler, will my good looks to Stanley Mahorney to go with his neat physique.

Twelfth, I, Monte Chadwick, donate my thumb tacks and bubble gum to Dick Powers for a few laughs and perhaps something else.

Thirteenth, I, Mary Long, will my neat physique to Nancy Cross and Daphne Keller so they might win the "Miss America" Contest.

Fourteenth, I, Joan Swinney, will my vocabulary to Judy Pickett. Use it well Judy.

Fifteenth, I, Evangeline Light, will my pen pals to Geneva Walters so she will have letters to read during spare time.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST, To our teachers, the faculty of the Ladoga High School, we hereby give, free from all inheritance, luxury, or income tax, our entire store of knowledge. From them it came and to them it should be returned, that others may be benefited by it as we have been. Along with this knowledge is bequeathed much additional information obtained by original research and contemplation. We feel that it will prove sufficiently starting to merit consideration and might even, with profit, be incorporated in the next course of study. We lack space for details, but shall simply state that our arguments against final exams, as well as those for bigger and better holidays, louder and funnier lectures, and no higher mathematics or school cafeteria, not to mention our shortened list of requirements for graduation, are of vital importance and should be familiar to every earnest student of education.

In Witness Whereof, we The Senior Class, the testator, have set our hand and seal hereto this nineteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three (1953).

Dear Sir:

In judging the photographs submitted to me for your "Annual Queen Contest", I picked the girls which seemed to show the most personality in dress as well as to choose the prettiest.

The choice was a very difficult one to make since I did not know any single one of the girls so as to be able to judge them from the point of friendliness, leadership, scholarship, poise or actual beauty.

Trusting that I have made a choice satisfactory to everyone.

I remain respectfully yours,

Harold Harvey
